Japan and America Still At Odds Over Naval Limitations

Facing This Problem, Washington Conference Approaches Its First Great Decision

China Wins Point

Conference Agrees on Withdrawal of Foreign Postoffices and Postal Systems

(By The Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 28.—The Washington arms conference is approaching its first great decision.

It was announced tonight by Vice Admiral Kato, chief Japanese naval expert, that Japan needs a 70 per cent naval ratio. At the same time it was announced with full authority that the American delegation stood firmly on Secretary Hughes' "5-5-3" ratio proposal which means a 60 per cent status for Japan. The conference ultimately must reconcile these two views or accept one or the other to reach agreement on naval limitations.

Vice Admiral Kato said the 70 per cent ratio was the minimum necessary for Japanese security.

The American view is that 60 per cent for Japan is the maximum naval strength that could be accepted in view of American liabilities in the Pacific.

Tomorrow the naval experts of the five powers will hold their first meeting in nearly a week. They have concluded the inter-group discussion of the American plan, so far as its major factors are concerned Developments today and tonight indicated that they would return the matter to the conference delegates without recommendations for important modification.

The American experts are satisfied that the original estimates of naval strength on which the Hughes plan was based are correct. What form the committee report may take is not clear. Presumably the British officers are in accord with the American view in many respects. The attitude of French and Italian experts has not been formally disclosed.

There was some indication that action by the committee of experts to sustain the American estimate of naval facts and figures was expected Whether the Japanese experts would submit minority views in that case was not known

Action Up to Committee.

In any event, it seems likely that the scene of action will be transferred within the week from the experts to the committee room where the delegates of the five powers must weigh questions of policy as well as of fact. Presumbaly the Japanese group is prepared to continue its argument there for a "10-10-7" fleet ratio instead of the American "5-5-3" proposal To what extent Japanese insistence may be carried in committee or later before the conference itself, however, is still to be disclosed

The British delegation, through an authorized spokesman, took occasion today to let it be known again that there is every reason for the belief that the arms conference will be a success.

I have good authority for saying that the American, British and Japanese delegations are all optimistic and quite satisfied as to the progress made," the spokesman said.

A copy of a letter from President Harding to Representative Kotaro Mochizuki, a leader of the Japanese opposition party, who now is in Washington, was given out today by the Japanese parliamentarian. In it the President said he shared Mr Mochizuki's good wishes for the success of the armament conference.

The Japanese political leader in his letter to Mr Harding told how much the people of Japan desired the success of the conference and forwarded to the President a pamphlet expressing his view concerning limitation of armaments and more particularly the disarmament of all fortifications, colonial in nature, in the Pacific ocean

The President, replying, said

I want to gratefully acknowledge your very cordial and pleasing letter of Nov 23 I am very glad to have the translation of your views on the proposed reduction of armaments of the United States and Japan and shall make it a point to read at the earliest possible moment. I have not done so as yet, because time has not permitted I have thought, however, I prefer to make an acknowledgment while the booklet is immediately before me. You can be very certain that I share your very good wishes for the success of the conference which now is under way"

FOREIGN POSTAL SYSTEMS TO BE TAKEN FROM CHINA

Washington, Nov. 28. — Taking its first direct action toward the liberation of China from foreign influences, the arms conference agreed today on the withdrawal of foreign postoffices and postal systems from Chinese soil

The decision was conditioned only on the maintenance by China of efficient postal facilities of her own, including retention of the present domestic organization by which a French co-director general acts as advisor to the Chinese postal authorities January 1, 1923, virtually was agreed upon as the date of withdrawal, the Japanese alone withholding final approval on that point pending consultation with Tokio.

To Decide Extra Territoriality.

Constituting the first concrete application of the principle of Chinese administrative integrity as delineated in the "four points" of Elihu Root, the postal agreement is expected to be followed tomorrow by another providing for gradual abolition of the system of extra territorial rights under which a dozen foreign nations have set up their own courts in China, and by a discussion of China's request that foreign troops ordered within her borders without treaty sanction be withdrawn

The question of troop withdrawals may lead the delegates into some of the most troublesome questions of the Far East Some of the forces which the Chinese declare are in China without authority are Japanese quartered along the line of the Shantung railway, and others are within the debated territory of South Manchuria

Thus the negotiations promise to touch upon the Shantung and Manchurian controversies for the first time, although it is considred likely that the real issues of these two problems will be put over for discussion when the conference takes up, in the very near future, the specific subject of railway leases

Japs Ready to Withdraw.

In Japaneses quarters, it was sid tonight that the Tokio government was ready to withdraw its troop from the areas not covered by treaty stipulations as soon as China could insure the safety of Japanese nationals and property within those zones

Although the foreign governments are to have a year of grace in which to prepare for withdrawal of their postal systems from China, one feature of the agreement is expected to become effectiv as soon as the conference confirms formally the sanction voted by the delegates today in committee of the whole This section refers to the introduction of contraband into Chinese territory through the foreign mails and gives Chinese customs authorities the right to search mail matter they may suspect.

No explanation of the search clause was contained in the official announcement of the agreement, but it was understood to have been inserted after the Chinese had charged that large quantities of opium were being carried through China in the foreign post in contravention of the anti-opium law.

STILLMAN DIVORCE IS WITH US AGAIN

Hearings Will Be Resumed in Poughkeepsie Today After Long Postponement

Poughkeepsie, Nov. 28.—Hearings in the divorce suit of James A. Stillman, New York financier, against Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, will be resumed here tomorrow after lapse of several months due to vacations of lawyers and postponements necessitated by the illness of Referee Daniel J. Gleason

The plaintiff having rested his case in which he sought to prove Mrs Stillman guilty of misconduct and attacked the paternity of her three-year-old son, Guy Stillman, the remaining sessions will embrace defense of herself and her child and a counter-attack upon Mr Stillman.

Subpoena servers were sent to New York today to corral 20 witnesses for appearance tomorrow and Wednesday. The testimony of some of them will be for the purpose of showing that Mr Stillman was with his wife in December, 10, 1917, and the first three months of 1918. This period is of importance in establishing the paternity of Guy Stillman, who Mr. Stillman alleged to be the son of the family servant, Fred Beauvais, a part-Indian guide. Guy was born in November of 1918.

It was understood witnesses for Mrs Stillman would tell of seeing her and Mr. Stillman together in a New York hotel and on their country estate, Mondanne, in the Pocantico hills, during the early part of 1918 Others are expected to support her charges that Mr. Stillman pretended to be "Harold Franklyn Leeds" the husband of Florence H Leeds, former Broadway showgirl, and that she bore him a son, Jay Ward Leeds, in September, 1918 Their alleged misconduct "will be brought up to date" by witnesses at the hearings here, it was said, with evidence that Mr. Stillman and Mrs Leeds were on outings togather on Long Island last summer.

NOTED DOG DERBY RACER FOUND FROZEN IN ICE

The Pas, Manitoba, Nov. 28. — Searching parties who have been scouring Moose Lake have found the body of Walter Goyne, famous American dog derby racer, who was drowned November 14 Through the transparent ice, the body could be seen in eight feet of water, sitting bolt upright on the sled, partl covered by an elderdown robe. Stretched out in front, in perfect alignment, were the nine racing dogs.

FOOTBALL CAPTAINS NAMED.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 28.—Ralph C. Gilroy of Haverhill, Mass., was elected to captain in the 1922 Princeton varsity football eleven today by the men who earned their letters this season in either the Yale or Harvard games.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 28 —Members of the Navy football team who participated in the Army game Saturday, last night elected Vincent P. Conroy of Ogden, Utah, quarterback, as captain of the eleven for next season, to succeed Emery Larson, who will be graduated next June. Conroy is a member of the second class.

ARBUCKLE GIVES STORY OF PARTY

Spending Greater Part of Day on Stand, Actor Denies Allegations Against Him

DEFENSE NEARS END

Will Close Case by Submitting Detective's Alleged Statement Clearing Arbuckle

San Francisco, Nov. 28 —His testimony a sweeping denial of all allegations presented by the state in its prosecution of the manslaughter charge again him. Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle spent the greater part of today on the witness stand giving in detail, under direct and cross examination, his story of the hotel party during which the state maintains Miss Vrginia Rappe, motion picture actress, received injuries from which she later died

Arbuckle's case-examination was completed at 3:13 p. m and he was excused from the stand.

Gavin McNab, chief counsel for Arbuckle, said he would close the defense case with the reading of Chicago and New York depositions with an effort to prove that George Glennon, hotel detective, obtained a statement tending to clear Arbuckle of Miss Rappe's death Glennon's testimony was ruled out last week.

Louise Glaum Not Called.

Miss Louise Glaum, motion picture actress, and six other persons, well known in the Hollywood movie colony, for whom subpoenas were issued yesterday, had not been called to the stand late today.

Arbuckle testified that the party in his rooms was entirely impromptu, that only a few had been invivted but that others had dropped in later and remained. He declared that he had an engagement to go out and when he left the party and went into his bedroom it was for the purpose of "changing my clothes to keep this appointment."

"I locked my door to keep the women and others out of the room," he said. "The bathroom door struck against the prostrate form of Miss Rappe. That was the first time I knew she was in the room."

"Then what did you do?" Leo Friedman assistant district attorney, conducting the cross-examination, asked.

"I picked her up and held her head"

"Did you say anything to her?"

'Not a word. She was gasping and had a hard time getting her breath. Later I asked her, 'Is there anything I can do for you.' She said, 'No, just leave me lie on the bed.' Before this I had given her two glasses of water."

"How did she get from the bathroom to the bed?"

"She walked; I helped her a little."

"Thrashing About" on Floor.

Later Arbuckle returned to the bathroom. Then, he testified, Miss Rappe was "thrashing about" on the floor. The witness said he picked her up and placed her on the bed, demonstrating the manner in which he did so

"Did she say anything then?"

"I don't remember, she was groaning, holding her stomach and twisting about."

'Then where did you go?"

"I went out of the room The first person I saw was Miss Prevost. I said, 'Virginia is sick'. Miss Prevost was close to the door when I went out I did not see Mrs. Delmonte. I could not tell how long I was in the room"

Arbuckle grew somewhat angered under Friedman's questions, putting somewhat of a snap into his answers

"When I returned," he said, "Virginia was tearing at her clothes. One sleeve of her dress was hanging by a few threads and I pulled it off. Later I told Harry Boyle, assistant manager of the hotel, 'the girl is sick and I want to get her another room'"

"You never told anyone anything except that Miss Rappe was ill?" he was asked.

"I did not"

"Did you hear Miss Rappe make any statement at any other time after you found her ill."

"No, except when she asked for water and wanted to lie down. After Miss Rappe was taken away, I put on a golf suit and a soft shirt Later I put on a dinner suit and went down to the hotel dinning room"

Doctor Finally Summoned.

Arbuckle squirmed in his seat and seemed uneasy under the fast-coming questions.

"I asked Mr Boyle to get a doctor," he said "Nobody had suggested getting a doctor until Boyle arrived."

The witness said that while he was there all of Miss Rappe's clothes were taken off and Mrs. Delmonte put an ice pack under her head.

"There was ice on the bed too," he said. "I took up a piece of the ice from Miss Rappe's body and Mrs. Delmonte told me to put it back. I told her to get up or I would throw her out of the window. Then I put the piece of ice back where I found it."

Arbckle said while the party guests wore trying to relieve Miss Rappe he told Mrs. Delmonte to "go and dress" as she was attired in pajamas Miss Rappe was unconscious at the time the ice was being applied, he said.

Frank Dominguez, Los Angeles attorney, was the first person he told of having found Miss Rappe in the bathroom, Arbuckle said Dominguez was his former counsel.

LANDIS MAY PRONOUNCE RUTH'S "SENTENCE" TODAY

Chicago, Nov 28.—Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, baseball commissioner, will announce his decision in the Babe Ruth case within a day or two—probably tomorrow—it was learned tonight. Ruth violated one of the rules of the major league by taking part in a barnstorming trip after the 1921 world's series.

There was no official intimation tonight as to whether Judge Landis would impose the maximum penalty of suspension from baseball or merely fine the home run star of the New York Americans. Since Ruth took part in the games played in October, Judge Landis has expressed himself on the subject only once, saying, "when my decision is rendered the public will know just what kind of a man Babe Ruth is."

FIRE DEATH LIST STANDS AT FIVE

Girl and Yale Student Die in Hospital From Burns; Coroner Begins Inquiry

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 28.—The death list resulting from last night's fire in the Rialto theatre was increased to five tonight when Miss Mabel Moran of Derby and Allen Keith, a Yale student, died in the New Haven hospital from burns received when flames swept the crowded motion picture house.

Several of Yale's football men took part in the rescue of the spectators, it developed today, and personal experiences were told by many in the audience. John Lock of Roland Park, Md., and C. P. Esselstyn of New York went back into the theatre and found a child which a woman said she had lost in her struggle to get out.

R. C. Batty of Utica, N. Y., dragged a woman out with each hand and pushed a third out at the same time, and dashing back pulled a woman out by the legs and another by her coat collar.

Fifty-eight persons who were either burned or trampled by the crowd which stormed toward the exits when the flames swept into the theatre from the stage, were in hospitals today. Twenty-one were taken to hospitals when the fire was raging and were given treatmen and sent to their homes. Twenty-two of the injured were Yale students. All will recover, it was declared.

Coroner Mix began an inquiry into the disaster today. Several persons were examined. Coroner Mix said:

"We have not as yet definitely ascertained the cause of the fire but we are inclined to the belief that it might have been kindled by incense burned during the photoplay being shown at the Rialto. This play was being given an Oriental setting and incense was being burned on the stage. It may be that the flames caught some draperies and dropped onto the stage of the theatre

ATTORNEY GENERAL TO PROBE COMMITMENT OF TWO GIRLS

Bedford, N. Y., Nov. 28 —A thorough investigation of the arrest and committment to the Bedford Reformatory for women here of Margaret Ballard and Ella Beattie, young women of Saugerties, will be made by Attornew General Newton, Supreme Court Justice Morschauser announced today.

Following habeas corpus proceedings before Justice Morschauser, the Ballard girl was released when it was shown that she had ben sent to the institution by a justice of the peace of Saugerties without having been given a hearing. The case of the Beattie girl, who is still in the institution, is said to be similar in every respect and is scheduled to come before Justice Morschauser Saturday The girls were arrested upon complaint of their parents following their refusal to give up their positions in a motion picture theatre in Saugerties

Zbyszko Defends Title Against Strangler Lewis

New York, Nov. 28. — Stanislaus Zbyszko of Poland successfully defended the world's heavyweight wrestling championship at Madison Square Garden tonight, defeating Ed. Strangler Lewis, formerly of Lexington, Ky., and now of San Jose, Calif. Zbyszko won two out of three falls.

Lewis obtained the first fall with a flying headlock after 17 minutes and 31 seconds. The second, a so-called rolling fall, went to Zbyszko after 21 minutes and 26 seconds. This fall was called when Lewis, in escaping from a half Nelson and crotch hold, permitted his shoulders to strike the mat. Lewis protested the referee's decision and left the ring, but was induced by members of the state athletic commission to continue.

The champion won the third fall and match with a double arm lock in 14 minutes and 56 seconds.

The referee's decision in giving Zbyszko the second fall was loudly cheered by a large body of spectators. Tonight's victory was the 940th for the champion in his 23 years of professional competition. He was defeated only once, the late Frank Gotch vanquishing him in a match that lasted but six seconds.

PLOT IN GLASS TRADE ALLEGED

Federal Jury Indicts 51 Individuals and 53 Corporations For Anti-Trust Violations

PRODUCTION CUT

Conspiracy Between Manufacturers and Labor Unions Alleged to Have Existed

New York, Nov. 28 —The federal grand jury late today returned an indictment charging 51 individuals and 53 corporations in the window glass industry with violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. Joseph M. Neenan, president of the National Glass Workers' union, also was indicted on similar charges.

In naming President Neenan, the indictment charges conspiracy between the labor union and the glass producers to limit production, 'thereby enabling the defendants arbitrarily to maintain excessive prices for the commodity."

The Johnston Brokerage company, an alleged selling agency, also was named in the indictment. This agency, the indictment declares, was part of "a price scheme to enable the defendants to combine, to dictate terms of sale, and to eliminate competition."

Tests Labor's Immunity.

Indictment of Mr. Neenan, according to William Hayward, federal district attorney, will test the validity of provisions of the Clayton act and the civil sundries service bill extending immunity to labor organizations under the anti-trust laws

The corporation defendants named are located in West Virginia, Indiana, Wyoming, Kansas, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. They include, Mr. Hayward declared, the leading window glass manufacturers of the United States and about two-thirds of the window glass indutsry.

The defendants are charged genally with a combination and conspiracy to suppress competition, to maintain arbitrary, excessive and extortionate prices, to curtail the production and the supply of window glass, and arbitrarily to control the sale, shipment and delivery of window glass into the southern district of New York, as well as in other parts of various states.

Details of Alleged Conspiracy.

For the purpose of effectually carrying out the alleged conspiracy to arbitrarily fix excessive prices, it is charged an agreement was entered into with the labor unions of the National Window Glass Workers through Mr. Neenan whereby the quantity to be produced annually by each of said manufacturers, the period within which the manufacturers were to operate their plants and factories, and the amount to be manufactured by each of the employes, were prescribed. It is alleged further that in pursuance of this agreement, the employes did not engage their service to any manufacturer who did not sign the so-called "wage scales" and that as soon as the manufacturer had produced the amount of window glass prescribed under the scale, the employes were withdrawn and that fines and penalties were imposed upon the employes by their union organizations for violations of this agreement.

SEEK HEIR OF RICH RECLUSE

Name of Utica Attorney Signed to Widow's Will Not Believed to be Valid.

New York, Nov. 28.—John V Bacot, attorney, whose name was signed to a purported will of Mrs Margaret Easton, a wealthy Brooklyn recluse, which reached Surrogate Wingate anonymously last week, never will tell whether he actually aided in drafting the document, according to the authors of three letters which the surrogate received today. The writers agreed that Mr. Bacot died about three weks ago in Utica.

All three expressed the belief that Mr. Bacot had nothing to do with the document, as he was said to have been an attorney of high attainments while the proposed will was written in pencil, in poor legal form, and in spots was almost illegible.

The purported will bequeathed all of Mrs. Easton's bank deposits and cash, amounting to more than $250,000, to Josephine Johnson, whose home was said to be in Ohio. The document said Mrs. Johnson was a daughter of James Easton, the recluse's deceased husband, and that Mrs. Easton had destroyed a will drafted by Mr. Easton in which he left all to Mrs Johnson.

No trace has been found of the "Samuel Clark" whose name appeared as that of a witness to the document.

Utica, Nov. 28 —John V. Bacot, whose name was signed to an alleged will of Mrs Margaret Easton, purporting to have been drawn in New York, June 3, was not in that city on that date, according to his widow. The birthday anniversary of Mr. Bacot's son was celebrated the day before, she said, and Mr. Bacot did not leave Utica for some time after that.

STODDARD APPOINTED STATE INSURANCE SUPERINTENDENT

Albany, Nov. 28.—Francis R. Stoddard jr, of New York, was appointed state superintendent of insurance by Governor Miller today. He succeeds Jesse S. Phillips, who resigned recently. Mr. Stoddard has been serving as a deputy superintendent in the department, in charge of the New York city office.

Whittlesley, Hero Of Lost Battalion, Believed a Suicide

Has Disappeared from Steamer Bound for Cuba, Captain Reports by Wireless

Friends Puzzled

Had Not Told Them of Proposed Trip — Left Several Letters, Supporting Suicide Theory

New York, Nov 28. — Lieutenant Colonel Charles W. Whittlesley, hero of the famous "lost battalion," has disappeared from the steamship Toloa, on which he sailed Saturday for Havana, according to a wireless message received here today.

News of the famous soldier's disappearance came in the following message received here from Captain Grant of the ship:

"Passenger named C. W. Whittlesley disappeared. Left several letters."

Officials fo the United Fruit line, operators of the ship, confirmed through his relatives the fact that the passenger in question was Lieutenant Colonel Whittlesley.

Members of Mr. Whittlesley's law firm here were at a loss to account for his proposed visit to Cuba. When he left the offices of the firm Friday he announced his intention, they said, of attending the Army-Navy football game on the following day.

It has since been learned that Colonel Whittlesley purchased a ticket for Havana the following morning and sailed that day.

His business associates declared that his mind was clear and that he apparently was in good health otherwise when last seen He seemed cheerful, they said, and they were unable to explain his going away without notifying them.

Had Appeared Depressed.

C. W. Whittlesley, the soldier's uncle, declared tonight that Colonel Whittlesley attended the services for the unknown dead at Washington on Armistice day and had since appeared depressed Mr Whittlesley said that he last saw his nephew on Friday evening and that he did not notice any decided change in his demeanor at that time. Colonel Whittlesley, who was 36 years of age and unmarried, lived in a bachelor apartment in East 44th street. When he appeared at breakfast Saturday morning, he brought a suitcase down from his room He did not say where he was going and his friends did not consider the circumstance unusual because he was in the habit of making frequent week-end business trips

Colonel Whittlesley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Whittlesley of Pittsfield, Mass. He has two two brothers, Elisha, of Pittsfield, and Melzar, of this city.

The crisp laconic reply, "You go to hell" hurled into the teeth of a German officer who called on him and his men to surrender, was the rhetorical battlefield classic which brought Colonel Whittlesley into fame over night

Americans Refused to Surrender.

Surrounded in the Argonne with his command, the first battalion of the 308th infantry, 77th division, Whittlesley had been cut off four days without food or fresh water All but 87 men had been killed or wounded. At dusk on October 7, 1918, a blindfolded German bearing a white flag crossed the line. He bore a message asking the Americans to surrender "in the name of humanity."

A few hours after the messenger had been sent back with Whittlesley's reply, an American advance took place and all were rescued

His exploit was rewarded by President Wilson with the congressional medal of honor, the most cherished American war-time decoration given only for valor outside the regular line of duty. Six months after the armistice the German officer who demanded Whittlesley's surrender added to his laurels by publishing a statement extolling the American's courage and determination.

John R. Pruyn, a lawyer, to whom messages from Captain Grant of the Toloa were addressed, stated tonight that he was of the opinion that Colonel Whittlesley had ended his own life. Radio messages related that Colonel Whittlesley left a note for the captain requesting him to notify his parents in Pittsfield, and then disappeared from the ship.

Mr Pruyn said he believed the tragedy to be the result of the mental strain to which Colonel Whittlesley had been subjected as one of the honorary pall bearers at the Armistice Day ceremony at Washington.

INTERBORO DREW BANK DEPOSITS TO PAY DIVIDENDS

Transit Company's Secretary Testifies to Manipulation of Funds; President Hedley Says Business Is Nearly "On the Rocks"

New York, Nov. 28. — The State Transit commission dug into the financial methods of the Interborough Rapid Transit company today and through testimony of Horace M. Fisher, the company's secretary, it was brought out that large sums of money had been borrowed from banks to pay dividends after they had been declared Some of the funds sought for payment of dividends also had been obtained from the Interborough Consolidated corporation, a newly-organized holding company which held its stock.

Mr. Fisher's testimony showed that the capital of the Interborough Metropolitan company, the original holding company, had been impaired to the extent of more than $80,000,000 and that money it had accumulated could be used to pay dividends on the stock of the Interborough Consolidated corporation through manipulation of the two companies, while its own stockholders would derive no benefit

"Dead Wood" Listed as Assets

While Mr. Fisher was on the stand a general balance sheet of the Interborough Metropolitan company's books of December, 1907, was put in evidence by Clarence J Shearn the commission's chief counsel showing a list of assets headed with Interborough Rapid Transit company capital stock at cost in securities for $104,563,042. Addressing Mr. Fisher, the attorney said

'That means that this company was listing as an asset at this figure, $104,000,000, the Interborough Rapid Transit company stock of $35,000,000?"

The witness said that had been done He agreed with the lawyer that as both the Metropolitan Street Railway company and the Metropolitan Securities company, other holdings of the Interborough Metropolitan, were in the hands of receivers, the value of their stock had been speedily wiped out.

Mr. Fisher declared all that the Interborough Metropolitan company got back of the $37,000,000 at which it carried these stocks in its list of assets was about $15,000,000 in the stock of the reorganized New York City Railways company.

Interborough President Testifies.

Earlier in the day Frank R. Hedley, president of the Interborough, told the commission that he had been fighting for two years to avert a receivership for the company because receivership proceedings almost certainly would result in divorcing the company's subway and elevated lines, thus doubling the fares of "hundred's of thousands" who ride combination routes.

He admitted that although the company was spending all it receipts on operation and was paying no dividends, it was unable to provide proper service. He did not think it possible to furnish full service and avoid a receivership.

"Something has got to be done or something is going to happen very soon," he added

Mr Hedley agreed with members of the commission who were of the opinion that the present five cent fares were largely theoretical The city has to raise $10,000,000 a year by taxes to keep the lines going, he said. In addition, he pointed out, any taxpayers paid one or two cent extra for transfers

Told by commission counsel that there was a common impression that he received in addition to his salary large sums as royalties on patents held by him Mr Hedley retorted that the Interborough used all his patents without charge, although other railway companies on both sides of the Atlantic paid him royalties He said that for this reason Interborough directors had voted him about $5,000 a year but this sum was trival in comparison with what royalties would have brought him. He said his patents saved the company $1,500,000 a year and averted many accidents.

He also told the commission his salary was much lower than it ought to be and that, if the commission succeeded in straightening out the Interborough's affairs, "you'll have to jack up my salary or I won't stick around"

ASSAILS PLAN TO OVERTURN MARY PICKFORD'S DIVORCE

Carson City, Nevada, Nov. 28. — Declarations that the attempt of Attorney General Leonard B Fowler of Nevada to set aside Mary Pickford's divorce from Owen Moore "violates every principle of constitutional government" and "is the first of its kind and should be the last," were made by Miss Pickford's attorney, Gavin McNab of San Francisco, in an answer filed in the state supreme court today to Fowler's appeal from District Judge Frank P Langan's ruling upholding the decree.

Miss Pickford was granted a divorce at Minden, Nevada, March 20, 1920, by Judge Langan and in a short time married Douglas Fairbanks. On April 16, 1920, Attorney General Fowler filed an action at Minden asking that the decree be set aside "in the interests of the state of Nevada." Judge Langan upheld the decision last June and Fowler appealed to the state supreme court.

INQUIRY INTO PHONE RATES OPENS AT ALBANY TODAY

Albany, Nov. 28.—Corporation counsel for many municipalities in the state met here tonight on the eve of the Public Service commission's investigation of the New York Telephone company and discussed the methods of procedure for them to follow at the inquiry. The meeting was private and no announcement of the action decided upon was made.

Nearly all of the 135 municipalities who have complaints pending against the telephone company were expected to be represented at the investigation which will include an inquiry into the local and long distance rates and the rules, regulations and practices of the company.

DELAWARE SUPERVISORS

Vote $600 Fund for District Attorney and Adopt Resolutions Favoring County Highway Improvements.

Delhi Nov. 28.—Resolutions providing a $600 fund for the district attorney to meet expenses in connection with criminal actions, and changes in the personnel of the board and managers and improvements to the equipment of the Delaware County tuberculosis sanatorium, were adopted at Friday's session of the county board of supervisors. The board put in a busy day, the session extending from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until late at night

The resolution relating to the expenses of the district attorney was offered by Mr Hume and unanimously adopted. It provided for "the payment in advance of audits of properly itemized and verified bills for the expenses of the district attorney lawfully and necessarily incurred in the prosecution of criminal actions or proceedings arising in the county," and authorized the county treasurer to set aside $600 for his immediate use.

Mr Marvin presented a resolution, which was duly adopted, designating S Forman Adee of Delhi as a member of the board of managers of the Delaware county sanatorium, to succeed S F. Penfield, resigned. Mrs. Flora Bassett of Walton was reelected a member of the board for a five-year term. The managers were authorized to sell the discarded electric plant at the hospital for the best price obtainable and to install a new kitchen range. The power of appointing a caretaker for the hospital grounds and fixing his salary, was transferred from the board of supervisors to the board of managers of the hospital.

After reports from several committees had been read, the board adjourned to meet again at 8 p. m. At the evening session Mr. (Leonard) Smith presented a resolution to the effect that "whereas the public welfare demands that plans for the improvement of the Bloomville-Hobart county highway be submitted to this board for consideration, therefore be it resolved that the state commission of highways be requested to submit to this board of supervisors of Delaware county for proper action such plans for the road, being about 7¾ miles in the town of Kortright."

All members voted in favor of the resolution and also approved a similar one, introduced by Mr. Chamberlain, providing for improvement of the Deposit-Rock Rift county and federal aid highway—7.65 miles in the towns of Deposit and Tompkins. Copies of these resolutions were ordered transmitted to the state commission of highways at Albany.

STATE FORESTRY EXHIBITS.

Famed Pictorial Views Now Showing at Huntington Library.

The State College of Forestry at Syracuse sends out a pictorial exhibit of eighteen framed panels showing the ways of forestry depletion and also the methods for care of trees and forestry conservation

Six of these panels are on exhibit at one time; the first set is now at the Huntington Memorial Library and will be on exhibition for one week more, when it will be followed successively by the other two sets of six.

They are on the walls of the children's rooms and should be of interest to all who care for the preservation of our trees and forests The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls and others who live much in the open should be especially interested to see these graphic pictures of practical forestry.

Entertain on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Alsdorf entertained about a score of relatives and friends at their home at 39 Spruce street on Thanksgiving day in honor of Mrs. Alsdorf's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hall of Delanson, the day being also the 35th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hall. During the afternoon following the tempting dinner, music and a social time were enjoyed and it was a happy day indeed for all in attendance. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Hall and best wishes for many returns of the anniversary day were hearty and were extended by all.

RAILS, EQUIPMENTS LEAD STOCK MARKET

Recent Broad Demand for Bonds Well Maintained—General List Meets Occasional Setbacks

New York, Nov. 28.—Rails and railway equipments continued to lead the further irregular price movement on the stock exchange today. The recent broad demand for high grade and speculative bonds was well maintained.

The geenral stock list met occasional setbacks, however, such minor specialties as chemicals, fertilizers, sugars and mail order issues giving way to incessant selling pressure. Sears-Roebuck was conspicuously weak because of rumors dealing with the preferred stock. Foreign oils eased in contrast to domestic issues.

Trading for the long account was favored by easier money and a brief rally in foreign exchange from the morning's low quotations.

German marks were benefitted more than any other quotation by prospects of remedial measures, sterling, French and all the other European rates canceling their rallies before the close of the day.

Buying of rails seemed to be based in part on better tonnage reports and the October statement of such systems as Atchison, St. Paul and the leading Pacifics and coalers, nearly all of which showed gratifying gains in net opearting income. The cheaper rails lost much of their advance in the heavy realizing of the last hour.

Liberty and Victory issues again contributed predominately to the heavy turn-over in bonds. Liberty second 4s at $95.88 and first 4¼s at $97, establishing new high records.

Why Guess About It—
When You Can Know About It?

Suppose a guide said—

"This way there's a safe and pleasant road to your destination, with no risks or troubles on the way," and—

"That way there's a road that a good many have stalled on and turned back from, but you may get through."

Which would you take?

Postum is a thoroughly agreeable and satisfying meal-time drink, and you're sure that it's perfectly safe for health. Coffee contains drug qualities which disturb and harm the health of many.

Postum or coffee? Which road?

Why guess when you can know?

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold by all grocers.

ADMITS SHOOTING DOE

Bennett Potter of Cooperstown Posts $500 Bail Pending Report of Game Commissioner.

Cooperstown, Nov. 28. — For several months three deer, a buck and two does have been making their home in Black Ash swamp and vicinity on the west side of Otsego lake, about two miles from this village.

Saturday it was learned that one of the does had been shot and one of her hind legs was broken as a result. Two of the state troopers, accompanied by Constable Charles T. Cook, began an investigation and soon located the offender. Bennett Potter, when accused of shooting the doe, frankly admitted his guilt, but claimed it was accidental, that he was shooting at a rabbit when he hit the doe. He offered to pay all damages, when brought before Justice Harold Carpenter, and was released under $500 bail, pending the report of the game commissioner.

At Thanksgiving Hospital.

Miss Iona Caulkins of Little Falls is receiving treatment at Thanksgiving hospital. Her mother, Mrs. Eugene Caulkins, has been here to visit the patient.

Mrs. Lutes Entertains.

Mrs. Della Thompson Lutes entertained at tea on Friday the members of the Housewives' bureau and the editorial staff of Today's Housewife, to meet Miss Louise Webb of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Lily Haxworth Wallace of New York city, director of Mrs. Allen's school of good cookery and food editor of Today's Housewife.

This week the guest of honor will be Miss Mary Hartman, who represents the Raisin company of California. The date of Miss Hartman's visit will be announced later.

Trained Nurses Entertained.

Friday afternoon at the New Fenimore, the members of the Alumni association of the Training School for Nurses of Thanksgiving hospital, were entertained at the Peacock Tea room. Later in the day they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. B. W. Dewar at their home on Chestnut street.

Contribution to Doubleday Field Fund

F. A. Maycumber, sales manager of the Winchester Repeating Arms company of New Haven, Conn., recently sent Dr E. L. Pitcher a check for $25 to apply on the purchase price of Doubleday field. Dr. Pitcher is treasurer of the Doubleday Field fund.

Accidents Will Happen.

William Lewis carries his right arm in a sling. William, who makes his home at the Christ church rectory, with Rev. M. L. Yates, says he was "doing stunts" at the Susan Fenimore Cooper foundation, when he slipped and fell, cracking the bone of his right forearm.

Taken Ill Suddenly.

Miss Gertrude Coleman, who suddenly became ill Saturday, is a patient at Thanksgiving hospital.—Mrs. Leonard Hayne is receiving treatment at the hospital.—George Flint, son of Mrs. George Moore, of Cherry Valley, is recovering from a recent operation for the relief of appendicitis.—Andrew Wilson of Middlefield continues to improve at the hospital.

Thanksgiving Day Notes.

Among our townsmen, who spent Thanksgiving Day out of town are: George Lang, who was with Rev. and Mrs. Chellis E. Nichols at Herkimer: Mr. and Mrs. William Soekland, who were in Boston; Dr. and Mrs. John B. Conkling, who were in Ilion.

Home From Syracuse.

Miss Florence E. Root and Joseph P. Turton jr, both employed in Syracuse, spent the week-end at their respective homes here.— Richard Diefendorf of Syracuse was a recent guest of friends at the New Fenimore.

To Consult Noted Physician.

Miss Florence Shay went to Albany Monday to consult Dr. Arthur Elting. Last winter Miss Shay was skating in the Leatherstocking rink, when a lad, who was learning to skate started towards her and was unable to avoid striking her. In trying to save the boy, Miss Shay fell, breaking her leg above the ankle. The fracture has caused her much trouble since the accident, hence her visit to Albany.

College Students Home.

Among the college students who spent the week-end at their homes here are: Douglas L. Root, of the Cornell Medical college of New York; George Smith and Ernest Hotaling, of Union college; Miss Gladys Hayner, of the State Teachers' college; Miss Annie Potter, of the Albany Business colledge; Miss Katherine Hyde, of Vassar; Miss Anne Hyde, of the Spence school, New York.

Among our young people who are engaged in teaching and who spent the Thanksgiving vacation at their homes here are: Miss Altana Willis, teaching at Newark, N. J.; Miss Esther Willis, at Springfield Mass.: Miss Mildred Tubbs, at Herkimer: Miss Edna Parshall, at Mamaroneck; Miss Ethel McDonald, at Schenectady.

YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED.

Roy Sweet of Portlandville Weds Mrs. Aline Cross.

Portlandville, Nov. 28.—Married, on Thursday, November 24, at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. W. E. Elwood, Roy Sweet and Mrs. Aline Russell Cross. Both are respected young people of this place. Mr. Sweet is a valued employe in the garage of C. B. McLaury and Mrs. Sweet has been for some time stenographer in the office of Attorney Lee D VanWoert of Oneonta. Congratulations of friends are extended to them for a prosperous and happy wedded life.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. E. E. Aylesworth was a caller here on Friday on her way to Forkville, Pa., where she will be at home with her son, Windsor Aylesworth. — Charles Roark of the Albany Medical college visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. DeLong from Wednesday until Sunday evening.—H. B. Packer and sister, Mrs. W. R. McLaury, were called to Bainbridge on Wednesday by the death of their uncle, Austin Chauncey.—Mr. and Mrs. F. DeLong, daughter, Phyllis, and Mr. Roark of Albany were dinner guests on Thursday of Ray C. Rose and family at Mt. Vision.—Charles Wellman is moving from Phoenix Mills to the tenant house of J. J. Townsend, Mr. Wellman having engaged to work the Townsend farm the coming year.—Mrs. Gertrude Wagar of Oneonta was a recent guest of her daughter, Mrs. Claude Tripp. Mrs. Wagar has accepted a position with Hills, McLean & Haskins of Binghamton.—Leslie Gurney and family spent Thursday with their daughter, Mrs. Grimes, of Schenevus.

James Peet Much Improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown, Miss Frances Peet and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown and family were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Peet at Milford Center on Thursday. Mr. Peet has so far recovered from his recent illness to be able to walk about the house with little assistance. This is gratifying news to his many friends here.

An Arrival.

Born, on November 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Couse of Milford Center, a son. Mother and babe are being cared for by Mrs. Maude Bliss.

LATEST MILFORD NEWS.

Ladies' Aid Meeting Tuesday at Home of Mrs. W. R. Seeber.

Milford, Nov. 28.—The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. R. Seeber on Tuesday afternoon of this week at 2:30 o'clock. A good attendance is desired.

American Glee Club Pleases.

The American Glee club, who gave the second entertainment on the lecture course, were greeted with a well filled house at the Methodist Episcopal church last Thursday evening. It was an entertainment which was well received and deserves much praise. The organization has had four years' experience as a quartette and their work lies on a plane of high artistic endeavor.

The program consisted of vocal and instrumental solos and a reader, every number being well received and encored. The entertainment was proclaimed one of the best ever given here.

Box Social Friday.

The Stand-By-Girls of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold a box social in the Sunday school rooms at the church on Friday evening of this week. At 7:30 o'clock a brief program will be rendered by the members of the class, following which the boxes will be sold to the highest bidder. Cafeteria lunches will also be sold. Come and enjoy a pleasant social evening and help the girls toward furnishing their room.

Have You Joined The Red Cross Yet?

The time for renewing your membership or joining the American Red Cross is short and no one who understands the work of the organization can fail to respond to the invitation to join. There is greater work for the Red Cross now than ever before in its history and the need of it is apparent to everyone who has any acquaintance with the present conditions. The organization is qualified and ready to continue the work commenced during the war. The one thing essential is public support. Show your appreciation of this great work by leaving your dollar at the Milford National bank or at George Mumford's store. Don't wait to be asked to contribute.

Sells Durant Car.

Edward A. Francis, who recently acquired the agency of the Durant cars, last week sold a five passenger touring car to Floyd Peach of this village. The car is one of the best of the lower priced cars and is attracting much attention. The car will be delivered at once.

John Clark Seriously Ill.

The many friends of John Clark, a prominent resident of Phoenix Mills, will be sorry to learn of his serious illness with pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Clark are well-known here, Mrs. Clark being a niece of S. Howard Sherman. The news from Mr. Clark today is not very encouraging.

LAURENS HOME BUREAU.

Two Days' Clothing Meeting Begins Thursday — Plans for 1922.

Laurens, Nov. 28. — The Laurens Home bureau will hold a two days' clothing meeting, beginning on Thursday of this week. Miss VanCleef of the County bureau will be present at the meeting. Members are requested to bring their material to be made or remade; also something for the picnic dinner. Plans are to be made at this time for another year; therefore all who are interested in having a Home bureau at Laurens next year should be present.

How to Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results. Takes but a moment to prepare, and saves you about $2.

Pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and tastes very pleasant.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

VINOL ON THE SQUARE
DO NOT TAKE OUR WORD
TRY IT ON A GUARANTEE

We agree to help you with Vinol or return your money.

That is what we call giving the consumer a square deal. We know that Vinol is the best body builder and strength creator for young and old—that money can buy—and we are willing to prove it to you at our risk.

We do not want anybody's money unless we can do them some good. "Value returned for value received" is our motto and always has been; upon this principle the fine reputation that Vinol enjoys has been built.

That is the reason we tell you what Vinol contains before you buy it. Would you pay $5.00 for a bag of sugar without knowing how many pounds of sugar it contained?. Of course not.

Why then should you take chances with your precious health by taking a medicine about which you know nothing. It might contain something that would hurt you.

For 20 years Vinol has been sold in your city and hundreds of your neighbors have been restored to health by it. If you have not taken it yourself you must know someone who has—and who knows from experience that money cannot buy a better remedy for all run-down and debilitated conditions—to restore strength after sickness—to make delicate children strong and robust—and bolster up the strengthe of old people.

Remember what we said in the heading of this notice—

We will help you with Vinol or return your money.

CURRENCIES OF THE WORLD.

The recent further slump in the value of the German mark, of which mention was made recently in these columns, calls attention not only to the deplorable condition of finances in Central Europe, but to that of a majority of the countries of the world. A diagram recently printed in the Bache Review gives in shaded outline the financial weakness or strength of the various nations, in many of which the conditions instead of improving have been growing steadily worse during the past three years.

The countries in the best condition are those of North America as a whole, with one or two minor exceptions, the northern countries of South America and, in Europe, Great Britain, Sweden, Holland and Switzerland only. In all these countries the paper currency is either at par as in the United States or does not lack more than 25 per cent of it. In the second group, where the currency is worth from 50 to 75 per cent of par, are included about half of South America, and in Europe, Spain and Denmark. A third group includes the countries in which the currency runs from 25 to 50 per cent of par value. In this are Brazil, France, Belgium, Norway and Greece.

Last of all are the countries where the currency is so far depreciated as to be worth less than 25 per cent of its face value. There are 16 such countries in Europe and one—Paraguay—in South America. The worst conditioned are unquestionably in Germany, Russia, Austria and the remaining countries in the Central Europe group. Their currency is practically worthless, and no device of financing will be of any avail to re-establish the old values of money. Repudiation and starting over is probably the only thing which can be done.

These facts are worthy of the consideration of Americans who have in mind fliers in marks or roubles, neither of which seem to have any possibility of reaching par or even a small percentage of it.

DECEMBER HOLIDAYS

While other months of the year are more or less fruitful of what may be called the minor holidays, in that they are not of national importance and perhaps are observed in only one state or a few states of the union, the month of December in the United States is absolutely devoid of any such days of observance, the only holiday to be observed in our territories being Christmas, which is perhaps the world over esteemed the most important of all. The anniversary of the birth of Christ is naturally so overshadowing, and moreover the minds of the people are so greatly fixed on the "divine event" that a proposition to fix any other holiday in the month would naturally be disapproved. At any rate, in every state of the union and in all territories and dependencies, Christmas will be observed, though this is not the case in all the countries of earth. While in most countries Monday is the day recognized this year for legal Christmas observance, it is not true of them all, Ceylon, India and Sweden having their holiday on Saturday, or the day before instead of the day after the Sunday on which the actual Christmas date falls. That it should be observed in countries where the old style calendar prevails, as in the Greek church countries, was not to be expected, since their Christmas and New Year both come later in the season

But if the United States has no December holiday save Christmas, this is not true of many other nations, since in fact there are eighteen days of the month which are set down somewhere for observance, as decoration day in Cuba on Dec. 7, while in no less than 20 countries there is observance of the Immaculate Conception on Dec. 8. As for Brazil, it would be a poor month indeed which did not sprout holidays somewhere, and in the course of the month there are no less than six.

EXTRA MAY POOL DIVIDEND

Members Participating in May Pool Receive 15 Cents for 100 Pounds Additional.

On December 10th the members of the Dairymen's League Co-operative association who participated in the May pool will receive an additional payment of fifteen and one-half cents per hundred pounds for milk delivered during May. A total of $427,000 will be distributed by the Co-operative association on that date.

This payment was withheld when the May checks were issued to the poolers in order to hold for better market conditions some of the products which were manufacuted from milk delivered during that month to the plants operated by the Co-operative association. These stocks have since been sold and accordingly the association is preparing to make returns to the producers.

Coming as it does in the holiday season, this deferred payment will be doubly welcome to the pooled dairymen.

"Peg o' My Heart" at Worcester.

Worcester, Nov. 28.—The Masque of Cobleskill will present J. Hartley Manners' great international success, "Peg o' My Heart," at the Welting opera house in this village tomorrow (Tuesday) evening. This wonderful comedy drama, which scored such a success on both continents, was produced by the Masque to two crowded houses in Cobleskill.

Through the generosity of Father wyer and the Masque, the play will e produced here for the benefit of t. Joseph's church, of which Father wyer was at one time the pastor. ickets are on sale at French's Drug tore.

TOWN CHAIRMEN NAMED

Persons Designated to Direct Sale in Each Town in the County of Christmas Seals—Tuberculosis Committee Asks Support on Basis of Past Record and Future Plans.

Campaign plans for the sale of Christmas seals, the proceeds of which will be used to fight tuberculosis in Otsego county, are well under way and doubtless will be complete by Thursday, when the sale starts. It is hoped that the campaign this year will net a much larger sum than ever before. The County Tuberculosis committee, under the supervision of Miss Nina Short, executive secretary, has done excellent work during the past year in curing and preventing the disease and is basing its appeal for funds on its record and on its extensive plans for the future, including the establishment of a summer camp for delicate children

Mrs. Ralph Birdsall of Cooperstown, county chairman, has named the following town chairmen to supervise the sale in their respective districts: Burlington, Jasper D. Fitch, Butternuts, William Hankey; Cherry Valley, Mrs. Seth Pearson, Decatur, John Nelson; Edmeston, Mrs. W. R. Lough; West Edmeston, Miss Carrie Towne; South Edmeston, Mrs. S. D. Tuttle; Exeter, M. J. Clarke; Hartwick, C. B. Burch; Laurens, Dr Milton C. Wright; Maryland, E. J. Goddard; Middlefield, Mrs. Thomas Cunningham; Morris, Miss Florence Sprague; Milford, Charles Merriam; New Lisbon, Ernest J. Thurston; Otego, Miss N. Evelyn Scholl; Otsego, Mrs. Paul Cooke; Pittsfield, Mrs. Fred Patrick; Plainfield, Herbert Rogers; Richfield, Mrs. John Carey; Roseboom, Mrs. Robert Smith; Springfield Center, Mrs. Grace Bringlow, East Springfield, Mrs. V. M. Webster; Unadilla, Mrs. Harrison L. Beatty, Westford, Louis J. Holmes, Worcester, George B. Crippen.

The quota for the county this year is $5,700. That much will be needed for the regular work planned, but an additional $1,000 must be raised if the summer preventative camp for children is to be established. The slogan is "Christmas Seal Your Christmas Mail." If everyone does that the needed money will be raised and the work of eradicating the "White Plague" will go on with undiminished vigor.

STREAMS NEAR FLOOD STAGE.

Downpour for Preceding 48 Hours Nearly Three Inches.

Oneonta streams were near the flood stage last evening and had the rain which had continued almost uninterruptedly for the preceding 48 hours not been checked there would have been serious trouble The downpour had approximated three inches and practically all streams were near or over bankful.

Silver creek did break over for a short time, but did little damage, although the cellar of J E. Holdredge was again flooded and others suffered to an extent. The overflow was soon checked.

Traffic on the trolley road was seriously impaired and it was not until afternoon that a through car from the north reached Oneonta. Along the D. & H. high water prevailed and at some places streams were over their banks. At Afton the Coventry creek went over. The highway there was covered interfering with motor car traffic between Oneonta and Binghamton. At the Glenn bridge at the west end of the D. & H. yard the Otego creek was getting near the D. & H. bridge and all along the line, water was threatening to cause trouble.

In the Catskill region much of the moisture falling was in the form of snow or sleet and the ground and trees and buildings were covered either with coating of sleet or with snow

At midnight indications are that the rain has ceased and that the danger point has been passed.

Minstrels Coming.

Herbert's Colored Minstrels, coming to the Oneonta theatre Friday night, December 2, the grandest and most sumptuous colored minstrel organization ever offered the theatre-loving public. The company, which travels in their own special steel Pullmans, is said to number 40 in all and the performance embraces the big elaborate first part usually found with an organization of this calibre, Herbert's concert band and orchestra, double quartet of male voices, world's best colored cycle rider, sextette of fancy dancers, six real comedians, five big vaudeville acts in the olio, and last but not least, like all good minstrel shows, there will be the usual big free street parade, and a free concert in front of the theatre at 7 p. m. Seat sale opens Thursday, 10 a. m., at the box office.

INCREASE IN COUNTY FUNDS

Report of County Treasurer Johnson to Board of Supervisors Shows a Balance of $87,045.80 as Against $57,472.35 for 1920 — Other Proceedings of the Board.

The board of supervisors met here this afternoon pursuant to the Thanksgiving adjournment.

At the opening fo the meeting petitions were read from the town of Pittsfield for levy and assessment against the taxable property of that town as follows: $428 to pay certificate of indebtedness and interest to the National Bank of New Berlin for defraying highway account, item No. 1 $107 to pay certificate of indebtedness and interest for defraying machinery account.

A petition from the town of Morris asked for a levy and assessment of $70.24 to pay for street lighting in the district of South New Berlin.

A certificate in regard to cutting weeds and brush from Elmer Welsh, superintendent of highways in the town of Edmeston, showed assessment for such services to the amount of $19.60.

An appropriation of $2,060 was asked for the expenses of the board of elections with the following items: Salaries of commissioners, $1,000; salary of clerk, $600; salaries of temporary employes completing enrollment, $160; salary of stenographer, $200; current expenses, $100.

Mr. Ferguson offered a resolution to the effect that the board of elections have published a transcript of the 1921 enrollment. Mr. Ferguson, in addition, offered a resolution appropriating the sum of $100 to defray incidental expenses of the board of elections This is $25 less than last year's appropriation for that purpose

County Treasurer B. G. Johnson submitted his report for the fiscal year Nov 1, 1920, to Oct. 31, 1921, with a balance on hand Nov. 1, 1920, of $57,472.35. His total receipts for the year were $1,475,722.52. During that time he paid out money to the amount of $1,388,876.72, leaving a balance on hand Nov. 1, 1921, of $87,045.80, a decided increase over that of 1920. The amounts received from the collectors of various towns were much larger than those of the previous year, being nearly double in some cases.

Victor L. Hoke, county superintendent of highways, was present on matters of business pertinent to his office.

MILK, THE GREATEST FOOD.

Marked Improvements Have Been Made in Methods of Keeping it Fresh.

In the preservation of foods, an art which has reached considerable perfection in these days, it is interesting to note how important a part is played by opposite forces of nature.

For instance, after milk is obtained from the cow, it is a great stride toward keeping it pure, to use "cold" (in the form of natural ice generally) to bring the temperature promptly down until near the freezing point.

Later, however, an opposite plan is essential. By prolonged heating of the milk to a moderately high temperature the bacteria or germs which are unhealthful are killed and the milk, unchanged in its digestibility, is rendered safe for use by the infant or invalid.

Both of these methods are used in their amplest form in the preparation of Horlick's Malted Milk, so as to obtain the highest purity of the food.

The absence of moisture is an efficient safeguard against the growth of bacteria and it also makes the product capable of being taken easily to all parts of the world.

It was no little achievement of Horlick's (who originated malted milk) to make a product which retains all the nutritive value of malted grain and rich milk and which produces at a moment's notice a food-drink that is sustaining, invigorating and also delicious to the taste.

The
U. S. ROYAL CORD TIRE
Unquestionably the outstanding merchandising success of the year—both in the eyes of the trade and of the car-owner.

When the U. S. books close for 1921, they will show U. S. Royal Cord sales nearly doubled over 1920.

What U. S. Tires say and do commands a greater audience than any other line of tires in the world.

Where is the tire dealer headed for in 1922

ALONG about this time of the year the tire-dealer is a much called upon man.

Probably a dozen different "Agencies" for a dozen different tires are hopefully spread before him.

But when he gets off by himself and starts to think he finds out that most so-called Agency Franchises are hardly more than permission to invest his money in this brand or that brand at his own risk.

* * *

Consider now—not what is said in behalf of the U. S. Tire Sales and Service Agreement—but what it does.

Consider general conditions for the past year. And note everywhere that U. S. Tire dealers have been the least affected of all.

Observe how generally the U. S. Tire dealer is respected. Not alone by the public but by his local competitors.

The U. S. Tire dealer always knows where he is at. Right now—or in making his plans for 1922.

He can always put his hands on the U. S. consistent merchandising policy.

* * *

Where the U. S. Sales Franchise separates from the rest and asserts its prerogatives are in these things—

It brings to the dealer's store the greatest and most loyal tire-audience anywhere.

It supports the dealer with the most constructive and courageous publicly expressed policies today.

It carries the prestige of the U. S. Royal Cord Tire and the "USCO" Tread.

It is the most sought after Franchise in the whole tire trade.

U. S. dealers will be the ranking tire-merchants of 1922. Not only in profits returned, but in local reputation as business citizens.

Prices on all U. S. Tires and Tubes Reduced Nov. 10th. Ask your dealer.

—The members of St. James' church will hold a fair in Municipal hall on Friday afternoon and evening, December 16. Aprons and fancy articles will be on sale, also home made bake goods, clam chowder, ice cream and candy. Light lunches will be served. All the ladies of the church are asked to make something for the fancy sale.

—Elsewhere in this issue appears the proposed constitution and by-laws of the amalgamated Farm Bureau and County Improvement association to be submitted at meetings of the two organizations to be held in Oneonta next week. It is printed in order that members of either or both organizations may be informed relative to the subject when it is presented for discussion.

—Disscussion of plans for observing American Education week in Oneonta, beginning next Sunday, will be had at a joint meeting of committees representing the American Legion, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Chamber of Commerce, at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Chamber of Commerce offices. Arrangement for national observance of this week was made by the American Legion's National Americanism Commission and the National Education Association.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL.

House to House Canvass Started Monday—Campaign Has Succeeded.

House to house canvassing was started Monday for the annual Roll Call of the Oneonta chapter of the American Red Cross and from the response accorded the solicitors for memberships it is evident that the city has not forgotten the splendid work which the Red Cross has been doing. Encouraging reports are also being received by Campaign Director L. L. Kellogg from the various branches of the local chapter.

Work in the city will be concentrated upon those who did not contribute to the Community Chest. Only such persons will be solicited. Those who are not solicited can take out memberships of Miss Holdredge at the Community house or at the following business places: Oneonta Department store, Carr Clothing company, Goldthwaite's Bookstore.

AID FOR WAR VETERANS

CLEAN-UP SQUAD AT POST OFFICE YESTERDAY AND TODAY TO INVESTIGATE CLAIMS.

Thirty Cases Considered Yesterday—Squad Is Official Government Organization — Will Handle Cases Involving Compensation, Insurance, Allotments, Back-Pay, Etc. — Today Last Chance for Former Soldiers to Avail Themselves of This Help.

Thirty cases were examined by the Clean-Up Squad of the U. S. Veterans' bureau at the post office yesterday, most of them involving compensation claims. Several of the men who interviewed the squad were unaware of the fact that they had a clear claim against the government for disability incurred in the service until apprised of the fact by the members of the squad.

The Squad, which came here from Norwich, is composed of eight men, all experts along their lines. Stephen R. McRae is in charge of the squad. Mr. McRae was the youngest flight commander in the American army during the World war. He was severely wounded in action and thus has the interests of disabled veterans peculiarly at heart. Patrick E. Fox is in charge of American legion affairs. Mr. Fox also knows the problems of the disabled, as he was in that category for several months as the result of his war service. Henry L. Guite is the rehabilitation representative and Godfrey Haas represents the American Red Cross. Harry McMahon is the official stenographer. Dr G. C. Moore is the medical referee and the examining physicians are Dr. Robert Scully and Dr. H. L. Meckstroth. Nearly all of the members of the squad are members of the American legion and have a wide knowledge of the problems of the ex-service men and women and of the quickest and easiest way to solve them.

The Clean-Up Squad is an official government body under the supervision of the U. S. Veterans' bureau, which is a consolidation of the Federal Board for Vocational Training, the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, and certain parts of the Public Health service. The purpose of the squad is to make a final clean-up of all cases involving compensation, vocational training, insurance, back-pay, allotments, and hospital and medical treatment. The medical members give physical examination on the spot where necessary and the squad gets the claims into such shape that they will go through the necessary channels at Washington with a minimum of delay.

All ex-service persons who have claims against Uncle Sam are urged to consult the squad today. The hours are from 9 until 5, but claims should be presented by 4 o'clock so that the necessary work can be done by 5, when the squad will have to cease activities. Original discharges and all other papers, including compensation awards, pertaining to claims which it is desired to clear up must be brought by applicants for the squad's aid. One thing that the squad members wish to impress upon ex-service people is that many times they have legitimate claims of which they are unaware. Many former soldiers hold surgeons' certificates of disability but have never yet applied for compensation.

The members of the squad expressed great satisfaction over the co-operation they have received from the local Red Cross and from the local post of the American legion. Especially do they wish to thank the members of the latter organization for apprising buddies of the visit of the squad and for other methods of co-operation. It should also be said that the persons who saw the squad were heartily pleased with the treatment received and with the prompt and efficient manner in which their cases were handled.

Bootleg Whiskey

With doped bootleg whiskey at $10 to $15 per quart, gambling and get-rich-quick-fraud-schemes-galore, is it any wonder that fools and crooks lie, cheat, steal and turn gunmen, in order to get money? Well, I am trying to teach them how to get money by paying them big wages on small amounts safely placed with me, so that they won't have to take the risk of going to jail or to the electric chair. I have 12 good, unselfish and experienced men, backed by Uncle Sam and the state, to help me. Have made good for 33 years and President Harding and Secretary of Commerce Hoover, approve of my good work. Wouldn't you think that the chumps would wake up to my fair chance, square deal and live and let live game for little fellows? Help me wake 'em up. I'm the safe and sane Oneonta Building and Loan association. advt. 1t.

KEEN INTEREST SHOWN

Propositon of Bond Issue for City Park Improvement Should Assure Large Attendance at Chamber of Commerce Meeting.

Keen interest is being shown in the proposition of a bond issue for Wilber and Neahwa parks to be launched at the Chamber of Commerce membership meeting to be held Thursday evening at the Hotel Oneonta, beginning with the dinner at 6:30 o'clock and the business session following later in the evening, about 8 o'clock. The forum on the bond issue proposal will not be opened until 8:30 o'clock, or later, after the board of directors have submitted their quarterly report on activities to the membership.

Reservation cards for the dinner, which must be returned by Wednesday, were mailed last evening to all members of the Chamber of Commerce. Because of the short notice, it will be necessary for all planning on attending the dinner to return their reply card immediately. Due to the widespread concern in the recreational facilities planned and the proposal of holding a bond issue election by the city, the committee in charge expects the largest attendance of any at membership meetings or dinners held the past year. Wives and friends of members and other interested citizens not affiliated with the Chamber are likewise invited.

Chairman F. H. Marx of the Recreation committee is making a final draft of his committee's report, which will show just what facilities for recreation are desired in the two parks and the amounts which the various estimates of the work call for. Following the rendering of this report, the proposition will be thrown open to the members present for a forum discussion of the question.

A careful study of the various phases in the problem of recreational facilities has been made throughout the past year by the Chamber of Commerce committee. Attempts were made from time to time to secure certain of these park improvements individually, each failing because of the city's lack of funds for such purposes. Reasons for the committee's advocacy of a bond issue election will be given in full at the meeting.

HARTWICK SEMINARY BANQUET.

Many Acceptances for Gathering of Graduates in Oneonta Friday Evening.

The committee in charge of the banquet and alumni reunion of Hartwick Seminary, to be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Oneonta hotel, have already received many acceptances, and the outlook is for a large gathering of the students of "Old Hartwick." An excellent program has been prepared and it is expected that the meeting will be of unusual interest to every member of the alumni. It is requested that all who desire to attend, and it is believed that this will embrace every former student from this county and vicinity, notify Rev Philip M. Luther of this city, in order that arrangements for the banquet can be made.

The speakers of the evening will include Prof. W. D. Johnson of the State Education department and Floyd S. Barlow of the Otsego County Farm bureau. In addition there will also be brief addresses by members of the alumni in attendance at the meeting.

INCREASED ICE STORAGE

Addition to Goodyear Lake Plant Will Give Oneonta Ice and Fuel Company Ice Storage Capacity for Over 10,000 Tons—Past Season Busiest in History of the Company.

An addition which will make the Goodyear Lake ice house of the Oneonta Ice and Fuel company one of the largest and best equipped ice storage plants in this part of the state is now in course of construction and will be ready for use during the coming harvest. The addition will be 32 by 65 feet in size and will be of 1,000 tons capacity, making a total storage capacity of 4,000 tons at the Goodyear Lake plant.

When the Goodyear Lake plant was built it was planned on the unit system, the units to be of 1,000 tons capacity each and to be constructed as needed. Elevator facilities were provided for a total of 12 units. The building now under construction will be the fourth unit built. The new unit, as well as those already built, is of the most modern construction. The ice will be stored clean, without the use of any insulating material, thus insuring patrons that it will be as pure and clean when delivered as when taken from the lake. A new tpye of wall and roof construction, known as the sealed storage type, makes unnecessary the use of sawdust or other insulating material.

When the addition is completed the Ice and Fuel company will have a total shortage capacity of over 10,000 tons at their Goodyear Lake, Railroad avenue and Pond Lily plants. According to officials of the company this capacity should be sufficient to care for the needs of the city even under exceptional conditions of warm weather. The old storage capacity nearly sufficed during the past summer, the busiest in the history of the company. It was necessary to import but six carloads of ice to meet the local demand, which was unusually heavy because of the extreme heat of June and July and the warm weather during the early fall months.

The Ice and Fuel company is making preparations for a large harvest this year, forecasts pointing toward a winter of severity. It is hoped to get enough ice from Goodyear lake to render unnecessary harvesting from the Electric Light dam. The lake ice is purer and so better fitted for household use and with the increased storage facilities the company plans to obtain mos of is ice from Goodyear. A sustained period of cold weather is of course necessary and indications are that it is on the way.

DEATH OF OSCAR N. BATES.

Former Well Know Resident of Oneonta Dies at Albany Sunday.

Word has been received by his son, Grant Bates, 352 Chestnut street, of the death, Sunday night at Albany, of Oscar N. Bates, a retired D. & H. engineer and a man well known in Oneonta where he resided for several years. A prayer service will be held at the home of his daughter, 290 Jay street, Albany, where he and his wife resided, at 5 o'clock this afternoon and the body will be taken to Damascus, Pa., for burial.

Mr. Bates, who was 82 years old, was for many years one of the most efficient and best liked engineer on the D. & H., running for nearly 15 years out of Oneonta. About 17 years ago he suffered a shock at his home here and shortly afterwards was pensioned by the railroad. Soon after, Mr. and Mrs. Bates moved to Worcester where they resided until two years ago when they went to Albany to live with their daughter, Lella Bates. Mr. Bates was a member of Oneonta Division No. 58 of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, of the Johnson Post, G. A. R. of Worcester, and was an honorary member of the Worcester Grange. Until advancing years forbade he was active in all three organizations. He is survived by his wife, to whom he has been married for over 60 years, by one daughter, Lella Bates of Albany, and by one son, Grant Bates of this city

Mr. Bates will be remembered by many in this city and in Worcester as a man of the most upright character and as the truest of friends. To the bereaved ones most sincere condolence will be offered.

Married Sunday at Utica.

Ralph M. Butts of Oneonta and Miss Vivian Bussey of Utica were married at half past six o'clock Sunday evening, November 27, by Rev. Dr. Butler at the Trinity Protestant Episcopal parsonage in the latter city. A double ring service was used and the bride and groom were unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Butts arrived in Oneonta on Monday morning and after a brief honeymoon trip will for the present reside at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Menzo Butts, 6 Lewis street.

Mrs. Butts is a graduate of the Utica High school and a former student of the Oneonta Normal. The groom is well-known in this city, where he was formerly employed in the Chamberlin Electrical shop, and now has a good position with the Delaware & Hudson company in the shops in this city. Both are worthy young people whose many friends will extend congratulations and best wishes.

The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Burt J. Bussey. Mr. Bussey is office manager of the Frisbee & Canfield Knitting company of Utica.

Funeral of Mrs John B. Cook.

The funeral of Mrs. John B. Cook, whose death was noted in The Star of Saturday, was held at 3 p. m. yesterday at the family home, 6 High street. Despite the unfavorable weather there was a large attendance of relatives, neighbors and friends met to pay a last tribute of respect to one greatly esteemed. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. B. M. Johns of the First Methodist Episcopal church, who read suitable scripture selections and followed with a brief, consoling address, closing with prayer. Among the many beautiful floral tributes were offerings from the D. & H. yardmen and friends in the immediate neighborhood.

Interment was in the Cook cemetery at West Laurens. The bearers were Walter LaFrance, F. H. Schermerhorn, Wayne Stickles, Charles Walling, Howard Mallery and Frank Kemezis.

Among those in attendance at the funeral were Mrs. S. T. Smith and son Kenneth, daughter and grandson of the deceased, from Blue Island Ill.

Resolutions of Respect.

Adopted by Perseverance lodge on the death of Sister Emma Jane Howard:

Whereas, It has pleased the Lord in His infinite mercy and wisdom to send into our midst His messenger, the Angel of Death, to summon into His fold our highly esteemed and beloved sister, Emma Howard; thus, the family losing a devoted wife and mother, and this auxiliary an earnest, active and valued member; and

Whereas, The members of this auxiliary sincerely mourn the loss of our sister and wishing to condole with the family of the deceased in this their hour of affliction, therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we bow in submission to His divine will, we cannot refrain from expressing our sorrow and feeling of loss in the death of our sister.

Resolved, That we extend to the family our sincere sympathy in this their hour of sorrow, and commend them to that God whom we all serve, for that consolation which alone can comfort in time of need.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and a copy spread on the minutes.

TO THE FOURTH GENERATION.

Descendants to Mrs. Elvira M. Marsh, Who Died Sunday.

Mrs. Elvira M. Marsh, who died Sunday of this week, had the unusual distinction of being survived not only by a daughter and eight great-grandchildren, but also by two great-great grandchildren, though there are no grandchildren surviving.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Brewer, at the Plains Junction. Rev. Dr. Edson J. Farley will officiate and interment will be in the Plains cemetery.

Mrs. Marsh, who was a well-know resident of this section, was born in the town of Butternuts in 1831 and was the daughter of Alanson and Jane (Wright) Noonon. About 75 Years ago she was united in marriage to Frederick Marsh, who enlisted in the service of his country at the outbreak of the Civil War and doubtless fell in battle, the place or time of his death not being known. The early years of her life were in Fly Creek and Cooperstown. Twenty-six years ago she came to Oneonta and had since made her home with the daughter above mentioned. She was a member of the Episcopal church at Morris.

The daughter, Mrs. Edward Brewer, eight great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren are the sole surviving relatives. Mrs. Brewer had many friends in and about the city who will extend their sincere sympathy to the daughter and other relatives.

DEATHS.

George E. White.

West Oneonta, Nov. 28.—George E. White died at his home in this village at 7:30 o'clock this evening. Particulars concerning his life and the funeral announcement will be made later.

DELAWARE COUNTY NEWS

Hankinson of Glenmore, New Jersey, is spending a few days in Hobart, where he was called by the illness of his aunt, Miss Hankinson. — A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sothman of this village Saturday. Mother and babe are doing nicely under the capable care of Miss Sturges.

AT DAVENPORT CENTER

Davenport Center, Nov. 28.—Laverne Shaver and family and Miss Lillian Knapp spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Everitt of West Meridith.—Mrs. Fred W. Adams of the Bannerhouse, Franklin county, have been guests at R. W. Barnes.—Mrs. Ella Pomeroy and Frank Pomeroy of North Franklin and Miss Bertha Anderson and T. B. Anderson of Oneonta spent Thanksgiving at R. W. Barnes'.—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Callahan of Schenectady were recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Cook.—Miss Nellie Busfield who has been visiting at Perry Dinimick's returned to her home in Oneonta Saturday.—Blanche L. Burdick was an Oneonta shopper Saturday.—Fletcher Banner spent a few days last week with his brother, Fred, at Milford.

FRANKLIN NEWS NOTES

W. C. T. U. to Serve Pancake Supper Tomorrow Evening.

Franklin, Nov 28.—Next Wednesday evening, Nov. 30th, the W. C. T. U. will serve a pancake supper in the Methodist hall. Hot cakes and maple syrup, home-made cookies and coffee will be served. Price of supper, 30 cents. Every one welcome. The ladies will also have on sale six different kinds of the choicest candy, which they are selling for the benefit of the W. C. T. U. Supper ready at six o'clock.

Sunday School Class Party

The Adult classes of the Methodist Sunday school will hold their monthly business and social meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Gladstone on Friday evening, Dec. 2. All members of these classes are most cordially invited.

DONALD GLADSTONE DEAD.

Well Known Andes Young Man a Victim of Tuberculosis

Delhi, Nov. 28.—Donald Gladstone of Andes village died last night a victim of tuberculosis. He was about 30 years of age and a son of Dr. James A. Gladstone of Andes and Annie Shaw, his first wife. Aside from many relatives, on both his father's and mother's side, he leaves a wife and one son.

Bovina Church Property Sold.

The Bovina Methodist parsonage and church were recently sold at public sale. The parsonage was bought by Gay Hafele and the church property by William Archibald. The house brought $1,025; the church, $775. The passing of this church property leaves but one active church society at Bovina Center, the United Presbyterian.

TRAVEL INTERRUPTED.

Charlotte River Floods Flats at Davenport Center.

Davenport Center, Nov. 28.—As a result of the two days' rain Saturday and Sunday, the Charlotte river overflowed its banks Monday and the flats were covered with water. On the road across the flat to the village, the water reached the wagon boxes when the milkmen went to the creamery.

Monday afternoon the water was still rising and travel across the flat had to be abandoned. As the dirt road near E. D. Seybolt's is covered with water, there can be no travel until conditions improve.

Home for Thanksgiving.

Clarence Olmstead, who is attending Wyoming seminary, visited friends in town over Thanksgiving.

Dinner at West Davenport

West Davenport, Nov. 28.—The Ladies' Aid society of West Davenport will meet with Mrs. Charles Holmes, Thursday, December 1, for dinner. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Myrtle McRorie Breaks Arm.

Myrtle McRorie of Milford, aged seven years, who fell and broke her left arm just above the wrist while playing on the school grounds in that village on Thursday last, was brought to Oneonta on Friday for an X-ray examination at the Oneonta X-ray laboratory. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Latcher, assisted by Dr. Brinkman at the Wanna sanitarium on Friday evening and the little miss returned to her home on Saturday.

Home Bureau Meeting

The Milford Center Home bureau will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Miss Inette Dayton, Cooperstown Junction. Salads will be demonstrated by Mrs. Chester Miller. A full attendance is desired.

ONEONTA WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this Oneonta woman?

You can verify Oneonta's endorsement.

Read this:

Mrs. M. E. Decker, 94 River street, says: "About two years ago I had a severe case of kidney trouble. There were sharp pains in my back and kidneys, and specks appeared before my eyes, blurring my sight. I also had dizzy spells and severe headaches. I tried different kidney remedies but didn't get relief. I felt all tired out mornings and couldn't get out of bed. Finally a neighbor advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking three boxes of Doan's I was cured and the cure has been lasting."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — get Doan's Kidney Pills — the same that Mrs. Decker had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Article 3—Co-operation

(It is the purpose of this Association to cooperate with the Extension Service of the New York State College of Agriculture representing the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the State Department of Farms and Markets and to be the local organization through which the Extension Service's program is carried out in Otsego County, according to the provisions of Chapter 400, Laws of 1919, state of New York.)

Article 4—Membership

1. All persons who sympathize with the objects of this Association shall be eligible to membership

2. Any association, corporation, partnership or estate may subscribe to membership in this association, provided that the privileges of each such membership are assigned to an individual.

3. The membership fee shall be $5.00 per annum, payable annually, in advance.

4. Members may be elected at any meeting of the Executive Committee, a two-thirds vote of those present being necessary to elect.

5. Voting shall be by individuals only and no member shall cast more than one vote.

6. Any member may be expelled by the Executive Committee for non-payment of dues or for conduct unbecoming a member.

7. Any member, upon written request to the Executive Committee accompanied by a remittance covering the full amount due on his membership pledge, may resign from this Association.

8. The death of a member shall, and removal from the county or bankruptcy may, cancel a membership pledge.

9. No member shall be entitled to vote at any election until his dues have been fully paid.

Article 5—Governing Board

1. The membership of the Association shall be divided geographically according to centers of population into community groups. Each community shall be represented by committeemen elected annually by the members. No community shall have less than three committeemen or more than five and each committee shall elect its own chairman.

2. Community committeemen shall constitute the advisory council of the Association which shall meet annually prior to the annual membership meeting.

3. A board of directors shall be elected by the advisory council and shall consist of nine members from which shall be elected a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer.

4. Officers and directors for 1922 shall be elected at the annual meeting in December, 1921, and the officers shall serve for a period of one year. At the first meeting of the board of directors after the annual meeting, directors shall draw for term of office. The directors drawing "one" shall serve for one year; those drawing "two" shall serve for two years, and those drawing "three" shall serve for three years. Thereafter directors' terms of office shall be three years. Directors and officers for succeeding years shall be elected by the advisory council. Nominations shall be from the floor and election shall be by ballot. Term of office shall be the calendar year.

Article 6—Affiliation with Home Bureau Association.

(This Association shall recognize the Home Bureau Association of Otsego County as an integral part of the organization. When mutually agreed upon by the Boards of Directors of both organizations, this Association shall cooperate with the Home Bureau Association upon matters of organization, finance and all matters of mutual concern.)

Article 7—Affiliation with Junior Extension Board

(This Association shall recognize the Otsego County Junior Extension Board as an integral part of the organization. When mutually agreed upon by the Boards of Directors of both organizations, this Association shall assist the Junior Extension Board on matters of organization, finance, and all matters of mutual concern.)

Article 8—Funds

1. The Board of Directors shall have power to purchase, hold, sell, convey, lease or mortgage real estate, to incur debts, to borrow money, giving therefor notes of the corporation signed by one or more officials duly authorized by the Board for that purpose and may enter into contracts of any kind furthering the purposes of this Association.

2. The fiscal year shall end the 31st day of December.

BY-LAWS

Article 1—Duty of Officers

The President shall perform such duties as usually pertain to the office of the President, shall have the power to fill such vacancies as may occur in any office or committee. He shall, in conjunction with the secretary, make requisition on the treasurer for such sums of money as may be required for disbursement. He may call special meetings of the Association or any of the committees whenever he deems it advisable or must call special meetings on the signed application in writing of twenty-five members of the Association setting forth the objects of such meetings.

The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in case of his absence or disability. The Secretary shall perform such duties as usually pertain to the office of the secretary, which shall include the duty of recording advisory council and executive committee meetings. Upon written requisition from the President and Secretary, the Treasurer shall draw all vouchers and checks for the disbursements of this Association. The Treasurer shall give bonds to the amount determined by the executive committee, the cost of which bonds shall be paid by the Association.

Article 2—Meetings

6. Bills and accounts.
7. Reports and recommendations of County Agent.
8. Suggestions for improving methods of work.
9. General business.
10. Adjournment.

The order of business for the annual meeting of the Association shall be the same, with the following additional items and the exception of the roll call.

11. Annual report of officers.
12. Annual report of Breeders' Clubs or other auxiliary organizations.
13. Adjournment.

Article 4—Employment of Manager

(The Association in cooperation with the Extension Service of the College of Agriculture shall employ a manager who shall bear the title of "County Agent." Such County Agent shall have direct charge of all association work under the direction of the board of directors.)

Article 5—Membership Plan

(Membership in the Association shall be secured on the continuing plan. Plural membership shall be solicited. The solicitation of memberships shall be placed in hands of a representative of the Association who shall bear the title of "Director of Membership.")

Article 6—Farm Settlement

(A Farm Settlement Department of the Association shall be established and maintained. The direction of such department shall be delegated to a committee of three which shall be appointed by the Board of Directors at their first quarterly meeting of each year. A written report of the department shall be rendered to the Board of Directors at each quarterly meeting.)

Article 7—Livestock

(A Livestock Department of the Association shall be established. The direction of such department shall be delegated to a committee of three which shall be appointed by the Board of Directors at their first quarterly meeting of each year. A written report of the department shall be rendered to the Board of Directors at each quarterly meeting.)

Article 8—Reforestation

(The Association shall recognize the reforestation of idle lands in Otsego County as one of its problems and shall work in cooperation with the Otsego Forestry Co., Inc. The Association may assist said Company in the selling of stock and in the direction of its operations.)

Foot Note:—Article 1-3-6 and 7 of the constitution and articles 4-5-6-7 and 8 of the by-laws are in brackets and are either new or have been changed.

Article 9—Quorum

A quorum of the executive committee shall consist of a majority of the members of the committee.

A quorum of the Association shall be fifty members.

Article 10—Amendment

The constitution and by-laws of this Association may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Association present at any regular meeting or at a special meeting called on request of twenty-five members, notice in writing of the proposed changes having been given all members of the association at least one week previous to the time of meeting.

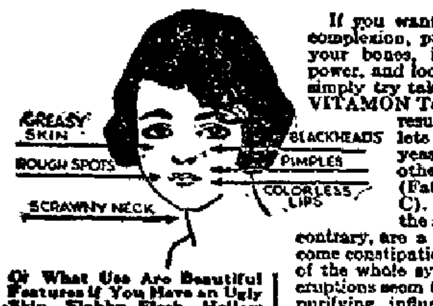
Yeast Vitamon Tablets Greatest Complexion Secret

Banishes Skin Eruptions, Puts On Firm Flesh.



Of What Use Are Beautiful Features if You Have an Ugly Skin, Flabby Flesh, Hollow Cheeks or a Scrawny Neck? Mastin's VITAMON Tablets are Positively Guaranteed to Give You New Health, Beauty and a More Rounded Face and Figure.

If you want to quickly clear your skin and complexion, put some firm, healthy flesh on your bones, increase your nerve force and power, and look and feel 100 per cent. better, simply try taking two of Mastin's tiny yeast VITAMON Tablets with each meal and watch results. Mastin's VITAMON Tablets contain highly concentrated yeast-vitamines as well as the two other still more important vitamines (Fat Soluble A and Water Soluble C). They positively will not upset the stomach or cause gas but, on the contrary, are a great aid to digestion, to overcome constipation and as a general conditioner of the whole system. Pimples, boils and skin eruptions seem to vanish like magic under their purifying influence, the complexion becomes fresh and beautiful, the cheeks rosy instead of pale, the lips red instead of colorless, the eyes bright instead of dull. So rapid and amazing are the results that success is absolutely guaranteed or the trial costs you nothing. Be sure to remember the name—Mastin's VI-TA-MON—the original and genuine yeast-vitamine tablet. There is nothing else like it, so do not accept imitations or substitutes. You can get Mastin's VITAMON Tablets at all good druggists.

Their Medicine Chest For 20 Years

IT is characteristic of folks after they pass the allotted "three score years and ten," to look back over the days that are gone and thoughtfully live them over.

I find myself, at seventy-one, frequently drifting back a quarter of a century, when I see myself in the little drug store I owned at Bolivar, Mo., making and selling a vegetable compound to my friends and customers—what was then known only as Dr. Lewis' Medicine for Stomach, Liver and Bowel Complaints.

For many years while I was perfecting my formula I studied and investigated the laxatives and cathartics on the market and became convinced that their main fault was not that they did not act on the bowels, but that their action was too violent and drastic, and upset the system of the user; which was due to the fact that they were not thorough enough in their action, some simply acting on the upper or small intestines, while others would act only on the lower or large intestines, and that they almost invariably produced a habit requiring augmented doses.

I believed that a preparation to produce the best effect must first tone the liver, then act on the stomach and entire alimentary system. If this was accomplished, the medicine would produce a mild, but thorough elimination of the waste without the usual sickening sensations, and make the user feel better at once.

After experimenting with hundreds of different compounds, I at last perfected the formula that is now known as Nature's Remedy, which I truly believe goes farther and does more than any laxative on the market today. The thousands of letters from users have convinced me I was right, and that the user of Nature's Remedy as a family medicine, even though he may have used it for twenty-five years, never has to increase the dose.

My knowledge of medicine and the results of its use in my own family and among my friends, before I ever offered it for sale, caused me to have great faith in Nature's Remedy from the very first.

And now as I find myself nearing the age when I must bow to the inevitable and go to another life, my greatest pleasure is to sit each day and read the letters that each mail brings from people as old or older than I, who tell of having used Nature's Remedy for ten, fifteen and twenty years, and how they and their children and grandchildren have been benefited by it.

It is a consoling thought, my friends, for a man at my age to feel that aside from his own success, one has done something for his fellow man. My greatest satisfaction, my greatest happiness today, is the knowledge that tonight more than one million people will take a Nature's Remedy (NR Tablet) and will be better, healthier, happier people for it. I hope you will be one of them.

CAN YOU DOPE IT OUT?

Girl Apparently Sawed in Two in Sensational Vaudeville Act at Oneonta Theatre.

It is no exaggeration to say that "Sawing a Lady in Half," presented at the Oneonta theatre last evening, is one of the most sensational vaudeville acts ever seen upon an Oneonta stage. There is a trick to it of course, but if you can figure the stunt out you have a better brain than those who were thrilled by the spectacle last evening.

The act is the more mystifying in that it is done in plain view without the aid of cabinets or other secretive mediums and with volunteers from the audience within an arm's thrust at all times. A beautiful girl is led forth and stood in a wooden box placed on end. She is then tied in by the volunteers with cords about her wrists, ankles and neck. The cords are passed through holes in the box and then knotted on the outside so that there is no play to the girl's ligatures. The box is placed on a wooden trestle and heavy plates of steel and glass are passed through slots so that they project from top and bottom of the box. A large cross cut saw, with a twang when struck and bent, that marks it as genuine, is then produced and the box is sawed completely in two by members of the troupe. The ropes are then cut, the two sections of the box drawn apart and the young lady steps out. The box is just large enough for the girl to get into and there is no room for her to twist about so as to avoid the saw and other implements. Now that you have figured out how it is done, tell your friends.

Davis and Walker, a clever pair of colored dancers, are an added attraction. Advertised as the greatest act of their kind in vaudeville, they fully lived up to their reputation last evening. The acts will be repeated this evening with a change of pictures.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

HORACE C. HOAG DIES.

Native of Davenport and Former Resident of Oneonta.

Morris, Nov. 28.—(Special)—Horace C. Hoag, a well-known and highly respected resident of this village, died at his home at 5 o'clock this morning after a long and painful illness of cancer of the stomach. His condition became serious about six months ago, and nine weeks ago he entered as a patient, the Robert Packard hospital, in Sayre, Pa. A week ago he was brought home by his own request in order that his last days might be spent with his family and among the associations he knew so well.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m., at his late home. Burial will be in the Hillington cemetery.

The deceased was born 56 years ago in the town of Davenport and was a son of Richard and Maryette (Strain) Hoag. While he was an infant his parents moved to Oneonta, residing for many years on the reservoir road in that township. He was married about 25 years ago to Miss Mary Stanton of Laurens, and from about that time until his death, he was a resident of Morris, where until last June, when he resigned owning to illness, he was driver of the New Berlin stage. Probably few, if any residents of Morris were more widely know or more highly esteemed than Mr. Hoag, and general regret will be felt at the sad tidings of his demise.

Besides his wife he is survived by two sisters and one brother—Mrs. Charles Rowland of Oneonta and Miss Nettie Hoag and Arthur C. Hoag, of Athens, Pa. His only son, Ralph Hoag, died a few years ago.

EUGENE WEATHERLY FUNERAL.

Many Present at Services Held Sunday Afternoon at Late Home.

West Oneonta, Nov. 28.—The funeral of Eugene Weatherly was held at his late home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The service was conducted by Dr. M. C. Miner of the Free Baptist church. There were beautiful flowers from the Brotherhood of Railroad Carmen, neighbors and several pieces from relatives. Interment was made in Plains cemetery. The bearers were George and Hiram Wetherly, Emmett and Gilbert Terpening, brothers and brothers-in-law of the deceased. There were many friends and relatives from Oneonta who attended the funeral and among others from away were Mr. and Mrs. George Weatherly and family of Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Weatherly, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKnight and Mr. and Mrs. F. Reeves of West Laurens.

Shock for the Explorer.

The sable coat of 150 skins for which £10,000 was paid recently is not, as might be supposed, the most expensive fur coat in the world. Some years ago the czarina was presented with an ermine mantle valued at £12,000; and an explorer in eastern Greenland recently discovered a native girl wearing a dress of silver fox skins worth, at present prices, nearly £30,000.—London Tit-Bits.

Musical Instruments of Insects.

Buzzing or humming is mainly due to rapid vibrations of the wings, which often strike the air more than a hundred times in a second, but there is sometimes a special quivering instrument near the base of the wing. Chirping or trilling is due to some sort of "stridulating" organ, one hard part being scraped against another, as the bow on the fiddle—it may be leg against wing.

Fur Farming Increases.

Ottawa, Canada.—The growing importance of fur farming in Canada is illustrated in the Dominion bureau of statistics report covering the industry for 1920. At the end of the year there were 582 fur farms, as against 414 in 1919, and the values had increased from $3,068,591 to $4,032,605.

3,000 QUARTS OF CANADIAN BEER SEIZED BY OFFICERS

Toledo Ohio, Nov. 2—Nearly 3,000 quart bottles of Canadian nine per cent. beer were confiscated by police and prohibition enforcement officials here Sunday morning, an hour after the cargo had been hauled into the Ironville slip, Maumee bay.

A lakegoing yacht and an automobile said by police to belong to George Dittman, an alleged rum runner, also were seized. The crew of the yacht escaped. Several hours after the seizure, Dittman was arrested and held without bail.

Dittman was arrested in connection with the murder of Arthur Janisse of Wyandotte, Mich. a rum runner in the Detroit river on the night of April 21 last.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS

George Phillips Purchases Farm of Mrs. Josephine Quackenbush.

George Phillips of 23 Division street has purchased of Mrs. Josephine Quackenbush her large farm at Hemlocks, and expects to move his family there Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Quackenbush is now residing with her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Lewis, on Main street.

A. Menzo Winnie, who has occupied the Quackenbush farm, will move to the home on South Side he recently purchased of Charles Osterhout. He plans to make extensive improvements to the property in the near future.

Concerning the Sick.

G. L. Wheelock, who for several weeks past has been seriously ill at his home on South Side, is little improved and his condition is causing considerable anxiety. A council of doctors was held over the patient yesterday.

Miss Jennie Polly, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, continues to gain rapidly.

Thanksgiving Day Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Whipple entertained a company of relatives at a roast chicken dinner on Thanksgiving day. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Emery Coe of West Oneonta, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Coe and daughter of Otego, and Amasa Coe of North Franklin. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Callahan also had a party of relatives as their guests. They served a delicious roast duck dinner.

Miss Edith Callahan has returned to her home in East Meredith after spending the week-end with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Callahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fish entertained a party of South Side relatives and friends Thanksgiving day. A delicious dinner was served and the afternoon was enjoyably spent in a social way.

Chicken Pie Supper.

The annual chicken pie supper of the First Baptist Sunday school will be served in the dining room of the church on Saturday night, December 3, from 5 o'clock until all have been served. Provisions are being made to handle a maximum crowd, with all possible despatch, with special attention to clerks and others whose time for supper is limited. The proceeds of the supper as usual will be used to make the children's Christmas a merry one, and therefore it is hoped that the public will give its usual support.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION

This Year's Auto Plate Issued Prior to July 1 are Valid to February 1, 1922.

To prevent any possible confusion between present provisions of the State Highway law and the provisions which maintained prior to last July, the State Tax commission today made an important ruling affecting automobile owners throughout the state. This decision holds that registrations of motor vehicles made prior to July 1, 1921, will be valid until February 1, 1922, despite the fact that under the 1921 amendments to the Highway law, the "registration year" now begins January 1 instead of February 1.

The ruling is made by the tax commission as a matter of good faith with the automobile public. The amendments to the highway law by the last legislation did not go into effect until July 1, 1921. Therefore all automobile owners who registered cars prior to that date did so with the understanding that the registration would be good until next February. The amendments were not retroactive, so the commission today decided that owners who registered their cars before July 1st last will be permitted to use their certificates and 1921 plates until February 1. All others, however, must secure the 1922 plates promptly and must use them on and after January 1.

The new decision does not in any way effects the regulations already announced regarding the issuance of certificates and plates. They must be secured from county clerk's offices except in the case of greater New York and Albany and Erie counties where they must be secured from the officies of the Automobile Bureau of the Tax commission. The plates will be ready for distribution next Thursday in all the offices, but cannot be used on any cars before January 1.

FRANKLIN

With a Score of Recent Improvements

AGAIN Franklin leads the way! It is the only car you can buy with case-hardened crankshaft bearing surfaces—the greatest advance in motor car construction in recent years.

The new crankshaft will outwear any other three shafts. This saves trouble, delay and expense. Also, because it has seven main bearings, instead of the usual three, vibration is unnoticeable. The Franklin is the only car that will go through an ordinary ownership without needing to have crankshaft bearings taken up.

Franklin Policy Gives Owners Immediate Benefit of Latest Proven Advances

This crankshaft is only one link in the chain of automobile progress shown in the Franklin of to-day. Others are just as outstanding.

Starting is easier than ever—improved electric vaporizer, new starter with brisk turning power. Perfected silent chain starter drive and the patented Long-type aluminum pistons also insure quiet engine operation.

Drive shaft, universal joints and important bearings are larger. Spring pivot bolts are adjustable. The last word in durable drop forgings' use now appears in certain load-carrying parts.

Lengthened rear springs; simplified ignition system; automatic lubrication of valves and steering yoke pins; most efficient service brake yet designed—each feature a real gain!

Quietness, Comfort, Reliability and Economy Mark Franklin Development

Back of all these advances are Franklin's 20-year-old principles of light weight, flexibility and direct air cooling (no water to boil, freeze or leak). The new benefits therefore merely serve to increase Franklin comfort, ease of handling, roadability, reliability and economy:

20 miles to the gallon of gasoline
12,500 miles to the set of tires
50% slower yearly depreciation
